

MEDIATORS BUSY, BUT PREPARATIONS ARE BEING MADE FOR WAR

First Move Results In Suspension of Hostilities Between U.S. and Mexico

READY FOR EMERGENCY

Despite Hope of Mediation Steady Preparations Are Made for Any Military Eventualities

CARRANZA SIDESTEPS ISSUE

Washington, April 30.—Restrained but none the less steady preparation for any military eventualities that may become necessary and the quiet but definite progress of the mediation program being worked out behind closed doors—these were the two outstanding features of the Mexican situation today. The three mediation envoys of Argentina, Brazil and Chile continued their private sittings through the day and evening. Their first move for an armistice was succeeded by the practical suspension of hostilities, or a truce between the forces of the United States and the Huerta regime, although there were still ominous sounds of conflict between the Huerta and Carranza forces.

Secretary Bryan formally notified the three South American envoys that the American government took it for granted that there would be no hostilities during the mediation proceedings, and had intended no further acts of aggression while the conferences were being held.

Attitude Still Unknown.

The attitude of Huerta and Carranza on the cessation of hostilities was still unknown tonight. While there has been no period set within which the negotiations must be concluded Secretary Bryan said today he believed they would move forward "as rapidly as possible." A report that they might be prolonged by the mediators going to Mexico was met by the statement by one of them that in these days of telegraph and cable such a journey was unnecessary as they had every facility for speedy communication with Mexico.

While the envoys were not yet ready to make any announcement, several interesting phases of what has come up during the discussion were learned from authoritative sources. It appears that while the attitude of General Huerta was definite in accepting intermediation as between United States and Huerta government, it had not yet been made clear that the acceptance will apply also to intermediation which includes Carranza. It is expected this question will be cleared up by inquiries now under way, so that it may be definitely established that Huerta not only accepts intermediation with the United States, but also with Carranza.

Another, an outgrowth of the discussion was an intimation that both the Huerta and Carranza elements would send representatives to deal directly with the mediators and Francisco De La Barra now at Paris as ambassador for the Huerta authorities, would be designated to act for Huerta. It was known that the mediators themselves had made no move to get a personal representative from either party. But there was reason to believe De La Barra's coming was being considered at Mexico City and that a representative of Carranza who is on his way here may be authorized to act in that capacity.

Foreign Powers Friendly.

During the day the mediators received word of the encouraging attitude of some of the foremost European powers, notably Great Britain. This was not conveyed in any formal adherence to the mediation work, but was none the less definite and satisfying as the result of an informal conference between Springfield, the British ambassador, and one of the mediators which was later made known to the envoys as a body. The British ambassador also talked with Secretary Bryan along the same line.

While the mediators have not appealed directly for the friendly influence of European powers, as their position does not warrant addressing foreign governments, yet their home governments have enlisted their ambassadors and ministers at European capitals to obtain friendly co-operation from those quarters. The responses are in general encouraging, yet the difficulties still in the way of a settlement are recognized. One continental diplomatist pointed out that the difficulties increased as the scope of intermediation was broadened and more elements were taken in. He likened the situation to the so-called concert of Europe, which could seldom be brought to agreement because of the number of parties and diversity of interests.

Local constitutionalists drew attention to the language of the note from General Carranza, as not accepting any offer to solve the differences between himself and General Huerta, but merely to listen to proposals which might be a solution to the differences between the United States and Mexico. In the note from the envoys to Carranza they extended "an offer of our good offices to all parties at interest in the problem of the pacification of Mexico and the adjustment of the differences between Mexico and the United States."

The Carranza reply thanked the mediators for their efforts to solve "the differences between Mexico and the United States."

Asked what differences existed between the United States and Mexico in which General Carranza could have a part, local constitutionalists recalled Carranza's recent note to the American government in which he pointed out that demands for reparation as a result of the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico and other offenses should properly be addressed to him as the constitutional president of Mexico.

On the question of whether General Carranza accepts any proposal for an armistice as between himself and General Huerta, depends the limitation, for the present, of the field of the diplomats at work on the entire Mexican problem. Should Carranza refuse to accept any armistice with Huerta, the work of the diplomats, it is realized, would be confined solely to settling the differences between the United States and Mexico, though they have by no means given up the idea of solving the whole problem of the pacification of Mexico and its international complications.

In the communication from the three South American diplomats to Carranza, mention is made of failure to receive the proposal by local representatives of the constitutionalists. The latter explained today that their declaration to receive the proposition was out of no desire to pass on its merits, but merely because they had not been authorized to receive proposals of such importance. They said they had advised the three South American diplomats, however, to telegraph Carranza directly, which process resulted in last night's answer.

Administration officials who read the Carranza note accepting the good offices noted the ambiguous language in his answer, but were inclined to be optimistic in the hope that technicalities would soon be brushed aside and a clearer understanding obtained of just what was intended by the constitutionalist chief.

Various conjectural reports continued to circulate as to the work of the mediators. One of these as to a neutral zone around Tampico was later said to have not been considered by the mediators. Another referred to a temporary provisional commission in Mexico in case Huerta retired. There was nothing authoritative as to this, but it was believed in some quarters that Huerta now realized that his strength and authority had waned until it could not last much longer.

Confere Over Neutral Zone.

Further conferences were held today at the state department on the suggested establishment of a neutral zone about Tampico so that neither federal nor constitutionalist operations would destroy the foreign owned oil properties. It was said this proposal already had been submitted to the two factions. These oil wells, it was pointed out, if once set afire, are under such strong pressure that they could not be extinguished and hundreds of millions of barrels of oil would be lost to the world.

A joint resolution to make immediately available the entire $101,000,000 army appropriation bill, just passed by both houses of congress, was introduced today at President Wilson's request by Chairman Hay of the house committee on military affairs. The measure is designed to allow the use of any or all of the funds provided in the big supply bill, originally designed to meet only the needs of the army for the fiscal year beginning July 1, next, to meet the present emergency in Mexico.

It has been suggested that the same course may be followed by the naval affairs committee, though Chairman Padgett does not favor such action unless the president requests it.

GEN. FUNSTON NOW CONTROLS VERA CRUZ

FIFTH INFANTRY BRIGADE OF U. S. ARMY IS GUARDING CITY

Natives Cheer American Troops as They March Through Streets Being Assigned Their Various Posts of Duty—Naval Forces Withdraw Early in Afternoon.

VERA CRUZ, April 30.—The task of guarding the city of Vera Cruz and its environs was taken over from the navy today by Gen. Frederick Funston and the fifth infantry brigade of the United States army.

While martial law still continues in force the actual municipal government is being conducted by Robert J. Kerr, the American civil governor, who has enlisted the aid of Mexican officials to act under his superintendency.

After a morning enlivened by the marching to and fro of large bodies of American soldiers, sailors and marines, the city resumed its normal and somewhat sleepy daily life. The evening, however, was made gay by outdoor dinner parties at the cafes, accompanied by music and dancing.

Once on shore the American troops were lined up along the docks and in the railroad yards and before noon all had marched to the posts assigned to them in various parts of the city and its suburbs.

As the various detachments swung into the streets, their flags flying and with bands playing martial airs, the natives gazed with undisguised wonder at the solid ranks of brown clothed men.

Many American civilians who were taking their breakfast outdoors left their tables and watched with pride the troops and greeted them with hurrahs.

Brig. Gen. Funston, with several aides, followed the troops in a carriage and were greeted with great applause.

When the men had taken up their stations, official calls were exchanged between Admiral Badger, Governor Robert J. Kerr and Brig. Gen. Funston.

Later in the day an order was issued by Rear Admiral Fletcher, who had been in command of the operations ashore since the landing of the American naval forces. The order covered the whole of the events since the taking of the city.

Naval Forces Withdraw.

By the order of Admiral Fletcher the naval forces were ordered to withdraw at 2 p. m. today, thus turning the command of the city over to the army.

It gave the time of landing as 11 o'clock on the morning of April 21 and told of the marines being under fire until 8:30 o'clock the following morning. The difficulties encountered in taking the city were also related and high praise given the men under his command, who the order said, not only suppressed lawlessness, but took 11,000 firearms.

"The highest honor is due to those who gave their lives in the service of their country," says the order, which concludes: "In withdrawing my command from Vera Cruz I wish to extend to the officers and men who took part in its occupation my deepest appreciation of their gallant conduct and support."

"In turning our work over to the army, the navy extends its best wishes and good will."

Hundreds of refugees together with a throng of natives had gathered on the piers and most of them took off their hats and cheered for the sailors who bore the brunt of the fighting.

In turning over the health service of Vera Cruz to Surgeon Guitierrez of the United States public health service, Fleet Surgeon L. W. Sprattling reported less than twenty cases of small pox in the city, only two of which were not in the pest house or in the hospital before the Americans landed. He said there were no cases of spinal meningitis in Vera Cruz.

Among the sailors there has been no sickness.

J. R. Mulcahy, who said he was an American reporter, was today sentenced to five years hard labor by Commander D. T. Sellers of the Arkansas, the provost marshal. Mulcahy had reported that he knew of the whereabouts of a quantity of arms and ammunition and three marines were sent with him to seize it. He led the marines to a gambling house and in Spanish demanded money. There was none there but the keeper was compelled to take them to the proprietor's home where 5,000 pesos was obtained. The victim complained and Mulcahy's arrest followed.

MEDIATION GREAT STEP TOWARD PAN-AMERICANISM

Argentine Newspaper Declares Acceptance of U. S. Government Is of Great Historic Importance.

Buenos Ayres, Argentine, April 30.—Commenting on the mediation now proceeding between the United States and Mexico, La Razon today says: "The acceptance by the United States of mediation offered by Argentina, Brazil and Chile signifies a great step taken by President Wilson and the Democratic party toward Pan-Americanism. We believe the partisans of Theodore Roosevelt desired war and that President Wilson saw the importance of the historic moment and thus ratified Pan-Americanism."

GENERAL CARRANZA WILL CONCENTRATE TROOPS AT TAMPICO

Order for Mobilization of 12,000 Troops Is Answer to Mediators' Note

VILLA TO LEAD ATTACK

General Villa Will Reinforce Rebels at Tampico and Will Lead Attack on That Port

ALSO PLAN SALTILLO ASSAULT

EL PASO, Tex., April 30.—While Gen. Carranza has not replied officially to the proposition of the South American mediators for a federal-rebel armistice, his answer is said by officials here to be plainly forecast in orders promulgated today for a concentrated attack on Tampico.

The federal gunboats and the land defenses of Tampico have proved too big a task for the troops of Generals Caballoce and Gonzales and orders were issued today for the mobilization of 12,000 troops from the states of Coahuila, Tamaulipas and Nuevo Leon.

It is reported General Francisco Villa, the first soldier of the revolution, will lead the attack. Monclovia Herrera, whose fame as a fighter has grown immensely during recent campaigns, if present plans prevail, will head the assault on Saltillo where the remnants of the federal forces from Torreon, Monterrey and other places captured by the rebels are gathered.

Armistice Impossible.

Rafael E. Musquiz, a son-in-law of Gen. Carranza and a leader of the junta here is among authorities for the declaration that the armistice in Northern Mexico is impossible. It was removed in connection with the proposal that acceptance of the proposition would have to carry with it some form of recognition of the belligerence of the rebels but General Carranza is said to have commented that he did not care to attain it in that way as it was bound to come in due time with the complete victory of his forces.

General Villa was at Parral today. It is learned that his recent trip to Juarez and his present peregrinations are on business affairs connected with raising revenue. The United States is said to have suddenly become very rigid in its demands for the protection of all foreign interests in Mexico, thereby embarrassing the process of raising funds with his chief by telegraph.

George C. Carothers, special agent here of the state department is working day and night, but concerning the important affairs passing through him he is about as valuable as the sphinx. Telegrams are known to be flying between Washington and Chihuahua and Carothers and Robert V. Pesqueira, Carranza's confidential agent here, are in frequent conference. The latter holds daily and nightly conference with his chief by telegraph.

Villa's present itinerary probably will be arranged so that he can accompany Carranza into Torreon next Sunday when he is to review the troops. It is understood that he will visit Monterrey also to congratulate his forces there on the capture of the city.

May Move Capital to Saltillo.

It is said the rebel capital will move to Torreon with the first chief and that after the expected capture of Saltillo that salubrious city will have the honor.

Mr. Musquiz has been authorized by Gen. Carranza to proceed to Ciudad Porfirio Diaz, (Piedras Negras), El Laredo and other cities recently taken by the rebels to install civil officers. Work of repairing railroads will be pushed with great energy, it is stated.

A letter to Gen. Felipe Angeles, chief of the rebel artillery from Gen. Maas, the federal commander at Saltillo and signed by a number of other generals and lesser officers, asking Angeles to join the federalists against the United States was received here today. Angeles' reply also was given out to the effect that he would not compound Huerta's crimes by joining him.

In a letter addressed to the Associated Press and signed by General Villa, the latter asserts that the best of feeling exists between himself and Carranza. The letter follows: "To the Associated Press: 'It is absolutely false as statements in the newspapers have maintained there exists bad feeling between the supreme chief of the constitutionalists and myself. Between us there exists the greatest cordiality and good feeling and I, for my part, will always render the chief the respect and subordination which have always shown in all my acts.' (Signed) Sanfrisco Villa."

The letter is dated April 29.

Armistice Not Considered.

Chihuahua, April 30.—An answer to the statement yesterday regarding the request of Latin-American mediators for an armistice, that the next news to be considered by the representatives of Brazil, Argentina and Chile would involve the constitutionalists in Mexico, was made here today. Representatives of the rebels declared that preparations now being made by Gen. Francisco Villa to take the field against the federal garrison at Saltillo is the best answer to the Latin-American countries who have offered their good offices to settle the question at issue between Huerta and the United States and who requested a cessation of hostilities.

Villa is expected to reach the front Monday. He has taken steps to mobilize his entire fighting force, estimated at 15,000 men around Saltillo. In the forefront undoubtedly will be Monclovia Herrera's brigade of 1,300 men. Monclovia Herrera, with his brother, Louis, is credited with the reputation of being the most effective fighting man in northern Mexico, with the exception of Villa.

Many of the troops counted on to take part in the movement against Saltillo already are in the field. General Fernandez already has 4,000 men operating south of Saltillo. It is expected that Villa, in expectation of making a demonstration before Saltillo, will leave only a handful of troops to garrison Chihuahua, Torreon and Monterrey. Villa expects to put fifteen brigades into the field. This distribution of his command does not follow the usual United States or foreign qualifications.

Some Brigades Small.

Some of the brigades number but 300 men, but each is definitely identified with some particular "general." Distribution of cartridges at Chihuahua among certain commands has been lavish and has been pointed out as an indication that the army of Villa is in condition to undergo a protracted campaign in the field even before the capture of Tampico, which is counted on to give the rebels a port of entry which will be independent of foreign regulations of shipments.

The investment of Saltillo will mark the attack by the constitutionalists on the second line of defense of the federalists. Torreon, San Pedro and Monterrey already have fallen into their hands.

The federal garrison at Saltillo originally consisted of 2,200 men, but the fugitives from the remnants of Velasco's Torreon army and the flying garrison of Monterrey have increased that force to 10,000. The present federal line of defense runs through Zacatecas, Saltillo and Tampico. Zacatecas already is invested by General Natera, who is said to have the federal garrison effectively bottled up. Rebel officers are confident that Tampico soon will fall.

General Velasco is now in Mexico City and the identity of the commander of the federalists at Saltillo is unknown. San Pedro is expected to be the rebel base for the operations against Saltillo. The railroad line from that point now has been opened to Hipolito.

It is estimated that the rebel forces have thirty field guns, but it is reported that the supply of ammunition for this branch of the service is extremely limited. The supply of rifle ammunition at the disposition of the rebels is estimated by foreign army officers at 400 rounds a man.

MEMBERS SWEAR ALLEGIANCE TO PROGRESSIVE PARTY

Members of National Executive Committee Send Cablegram to Colonel Roosevelt.

Chicago, April 30.—Continued allegiance to the Progressive party was pledged by members of the national executive committee of the Progressive party in a cablegram sent tonight to Colonel Roosevelt. The message was in reply to one received during the day from the former president, stating that he expected to announce his future plans in a few days. It was:

"The central western state chairmen meeting with the executive committee here today rejoice at your safe arrival. Our organizations are stronger in the faith than ever and hail your return to our fighting forces."

The cablegram was signed by William Flinn, A. J. Beveridge and Jasper Schenk, the latter of Iowa. George W. Perkins of New York repeated former assertions that an amalgamation of the Progressives with the Republicans was not to be considered a possibility.

"Least of all," he said, "on an understanding with Barnes, Penrose and Smoot that they will agree on Colonel Roosevelt as a candidate for president in 1916."

O. K. Davis, secretary of the committee, said the Progressives were confident of electing United States senators in Kansas, Pennsylvania and Illinois. "Victor Murdock will be elected in Kansas," he said. "Gifford Pinchot will be chosen in Pennsylvania and a Progressive candidate will be successful in this state."

Progressive party tickets will be up in every congressional district where there are fall elections, it was announced. Members of the committee said they expected Roosevelt to return about the middle of August in time to take part in the fall elections.

MEXICANS FIRE UPON WARD LINE STEAMER

REBELS AND FEDERAL SHIP VESSEL FLYING CUBAN FLAG

Helmman of Antilla Is Wounded by Rebel Fire—Merchant Ship Proceeds to Wharves Under Cover of Shelling of the Gunboat Vera Cruz.

VERA CRUZ, April 30.—Ward line steamer Antilla fired upon by both federal and the rebels at Tampico yesterday, according to a despatch received here today by wireless telegraph from that seaport. The steersman of the vessel was struck by one of the shots and killed.

The Antilla left New York April 18th, and was flying the Cuban flag. The liner was first raked by the federal guns as she was running out from the city the rebels from their position near the mouth of the Panuco river opened fire on her.

The commander of one of the British boats lying off Tampico filed a protest with the federal and rebel commanders.

No report of firing on the Ward liner Antilla at Tampico had reached either the navy or Ward headquarters late today.

The helmman of the Antilla was wounded by the rebel fire and the steamer anchored sending out wireless "S. O. S." signals. Admiral Mayo sent alongside a boat with his aide and a medical officer from the flagship Des Moines. Then officers of the foreign men of war off the port, headed by Captain Doughty of the British cruiser Hermeine, called on the constitutionalist commander for an explanation of the incident.

The constitutionalist officers declared that they proposed in future to prevent any merchant vessels entering Tampico in order to keep supplies and stores from the federalists.

Soon after this conference Admiral Mayo's report said the gunboat Antilla opened fire on the constitutionalists and the Antilla under cover of the shelling proceeded up the river to the wharves. Shells from the Vera Cruz set fire to two big oil lighters at the Waters-Pierce refinery pier and they were still blazing at last report.

Naval officers here said no official notice would be taken by Admiral Mayo of the Antilla incident.

AMERICANS ON BORDER ARE CONFUSED BY CONTRADICTION

Secretary Bryan Is Said to Sanction Return to Mexico While U. S. Consuls Object.

Nogales, Ariz., April 30.—Between being advised by mine owners that Secretary of the State Bryan has sanctioned the return of Americans to Mexico and being warned by United States Consuls that they should not return under any circumstances, Americans on the border today professed to be in a quandary.

Consul Frederick Simpich at Nogales and Consul Agent C. L. Montague at Naco, said they had no instructions other than to help Americans out of the southern republic.

AL BALDWIN WINS BOUT IN SPRINGFIELD BY WIDE MARGIN

Local Boxer Although Outweighed Almost Ten Pounds Gives His Opponent Decisive Beating—Kid Beebe Substituted for Jap.

Springfield, Ill., April 30.—(Special.)—At the end of ten fast and furious rounds Young Baldwin of Jacksonville was declared the winner over Kid Beebe of Chicago, who was substituted at the last moment for Togo, the much touted Jap.

Baldwin was outweighed by about ten pounds, but he made up for the lack of weight by science.

Young Baldwin was in the pink of condition and walloped Beebe all over the ring. In the fighting Baldwin far exceeded his bulky opponent, and after the third round had Beebe in a bad way.

In the fourth round Baldwin started claret flowing from the Chicago lad's nose and from that time on kept after that portion of the Ghetto kid's bean. Baldwin came out of the fight without a scratch and didn't look as though he had been through anything like a fight. Beebe was a good two-hand fighter, but Baldwin had it all over him from all angles. Baldwin's favorite punch seemed to be a left hook to the jaw and he landed it apparently at will. At the end of the tenth round, when Referee Kelly raised Baldwin's right arm as a signal of victory, there was wild applause for Baldwin, and he surely won by a wide margin.

FEDERAL TROOPS RESTORE PEACE IN STRIKE ZONE

State Troops Being Rapidly Relieved In Colorado by U. S. Regulars

GUARDS TO KEEP ARMS

Major Holbrook Declares Mine Guards Cannot Be Disarmed—Wants Strikers Weapons

TROOPS MUST BE IMPARTIAL

Colorado Strike Situation.

Federal troops bring peace at Trinidad, Walsenburg and Canon City. Militia being withdrawn from these points. More troops from Ft. Leavenworth to arrive Saturday morning.

United States army officers take full charge of situation in Las Animas and Fremont counties and receive promises of co-operation from the strikers.

Death list in 48 hours battle at Forbes and Walsenburg now placed at more than eleven. Strikers are declared to have lost more than twenty in latter conflict with more than number of wounded.

Col. Verdeckberg of the Colorado National Guard and strikers agreed to truce at Walsenburg so latter could remove their dead and wounded.

John Lawson of the United Mine Workers advises strikers not to give up their arms but said they would not oppose the federal troops.

Kansas miners decide to give $200,000 defense fund to the Colorado strikers.

Illinois miners adopt resolutions endorsing a general strike of all nation's miners as protest against conditions in Colorado.

DENVER, Colo., April 30.—With federal troops on the ground conditions were more quiet today in the Colorado strike zone. State troops are being relieved as rapidly as the regulars are sent to points where disturbances have occurred and the militant strikers are said to be dispersing. The federal soldiers now are patrolling the Fremont county district and regular troops under Captain Parker superseded the militiamen at Walsenburg tonight. The regulars will occupy the Ludlow district tomorrow and the national guardsmen from both Walsenburg and Ludlow will decamp.

Thus far the strikers have surrendered no arms either to the militia or the federal troops. Leaders are engaged tonight in going about among the hills of Southern Colorado, urging the men to disperse and return to their homes but according to John Lawson, international board member of the United Mine Workers of America, they have not been told to give up their weapons.

Men in all walks of life fought with the miners in this conflict, said Mr. Lawson tonight. "But they will not oppose the federal troops. They would not have opposed the militia had it not been for the gunmen affiliated with them. Now they are returning to their homes, those who have any left. The tent colonies at Ludlow and Forbes will be rebuilt. 'The guns are the property of our men,' added the union leader, 'and so far as I know they will keep them.'"

Must Disarm All Guards.

The immediate withdrawal of state troops from the strike zone and the speedy disarmament of all mine guards are among the conditions named by the union leaders.

"Without this there can be no peace," said Lawson.

At the governor's office it was stated that an appeal for help had been received from Sheriff McAfee, of Weld county, who feared an attack by strikers on the mines in the vicinity of Frederick. A detail of 120 militiamen is still at Louisville.

Adjutant General Chase said tonight the question of disarmament had been turned over to the federal troops.

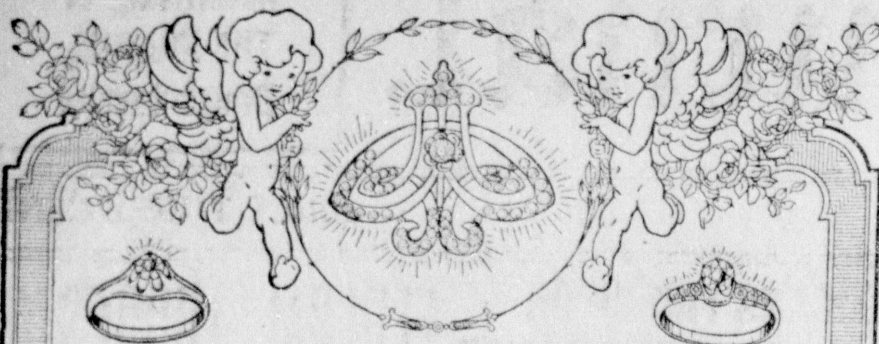

Three miners from Routt county reported to Governor Ammons today that every man employed at the Oakdale mine near Steamboat Springs, had received a threatening letter. No troops are stationed here.

At headquarters, no estimate upon the probable number of strikers dead and wounded in the fighting at Forbes and Walsenburg was forthcoming.

"We have been too busy looking after the living," said John Lawson.

STATE CONVENTION WILL OPEN TODAY

"TRAVELERS" WILL ASSEMBLE
FOR BIG MEETING.

City in Gala Attire to Welcome
Hundreds of Guests Who Are Expected.—Program One of Unusual Interest.—Parade Tomorrow at 9:30 O'clock.

Dressed in her finest attire, Jacksonville awaits the coming of the hundreds of members of the Travelers Protective Association, who will be guests in the city for two days. For some time the merchants have been busy decorating their places of business and the effect is really worth the while. The street commission has also had a force of men working on the streets and they have been dusted and washed in a manner, that makes one forget their appearance at the time of the big snow when there was a heavy coating of ice, which a force of men were compelled to work for days to get off.

The Posts which will be represented are as follows: Post A, Quincy; Post C, Chicago; Post D, Springfield; Post E, Peoria; Post F, Cairo; Post G, Aurora; Post H, Canton; Post I, Joliet; Post K, Decatur; Post L, Bloomington; Post M, Danville; Post O, Jacksonville; Post P, Mt. Vernon; Post Q, Champaign; Post R, Belleville; Post T, Rock Island; Post U, East St. Louis; Post V, Abington; Post W, Galesburg.

All the incoming trains are expected to bring large delegations today and word has been received that all Posts expected to be well represented. As the custom the wives and lady friends of the members will also be in attendance and the local ladies of the T. P. A. members are planning to give their sisters a most cordial welcome. There will practically be little doing this morning except organizing. According to the program Capps' woolen mills will be visited at 2:30 and this will be followed by the musical and luncheon at Woman's college, and exercises at the Blind Friday evening.

The parade of Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock promises to be a big event. Practically every automobile owner in the city has given his consent to furnish a car. The T. P. A. flags for each car and it is expected that individuals will decorate their cars in every attractive way.

History of T. P. A.
The Travelers Protective Association was organized in Denver, Colo., June 30, 1890, and succeeded the Travelers Protective Association of the United States. At the outset of the organization the dues were fixed at $10 a year and a weekly benefit fund of $15 a week. The association now pays $25 a week and instead of $2,000 in case of accident, now gives $5,000. The organization now has a membership of 40,000 and the sum of $208,000 in the treasury and has paid out for indemnity $2,498,449.

The Illinois Division T. P. A. was organized in Peoria in December, 1890—the same year the National organization was formed in Denver. The visitors came on invitation of the Peoria Commercial Travelers' club, a purely social organization, but which was a powerful factor in the city's progress. It was with no little trouble that enough signers for a charter were secured, but those fifteen who can still look back at their cards realize that the effort was really worth while.

History of Post O.
Post O of Jacksonville was organized at the Dunlap hotel Nov. 20, 1897 with 17 charter members. For the first 10 years the Post made a very little progress in its membership. January 1, 1907, when Pres. R. S. Fanning, Vice-President W. D. Roberts and Sec. and Treas. C. F. Ehnie were installed, the Post only had 68 members.

By the untiring efforts of the officers and the co-operation of the membership this has been increased until the membership is now much over 200 members. It has been known as one of the live organizations of the state and has among its members some of the most active workers of Illinois.

Friday Afternoon.
2:30—Visit to Capps' woolen mill. Largest in the West, where the process of clothing making is shown from the raw wool to the finished garment. Party will start from the headquarters.

4:00—Entertainment at Illinois Woman's College, East State street.

5:00—Reception in parlor and tour of the buildings at the Illinois Woman's College.

6:00—Luncheon in dining hall at the Illinois Woman's College, served by Domestic Science department of the college.

Post Steering Committee meet at headquarters at 4:30 p. m.

Friday Evening.
7:30—Entertainment at Illinois School for the Blind, Literary and Musical exercises in chapel.

9:00—Physical training classes.

9:00—Dance in the gymnasium. Special headquarters for ladies at Dunlap and Pacific hotels, in charge of Jacksonville ladies.

Complimentary Recital.
The students of the department of music and expression of the Woman's college will give the following program this afternoon at 4:15 p. m.

Organ—Pilgrims' Chorus—Wagner-Liszt (from "Tannhauser") by Letta Irwin.

Voice—I know not why I dream.—Moehring (quartet unaccompanied) by Mary Violet, Ruth Brown, Louise Hughes, Helen Jones.

Reading—A Community Sunbeam—Elizabeth Jordan. By Annie Floreth.

FRANK BYRNS A VETERAN

AMONG T. P. A. MEMBERS

Was Enrolled at Quincy Nearly Twenty-five Years Ago—Has Been an Enthusiastic Member Ever Since.

Although Frank Byrns has not yet reached the age which entitles him to belong to the old settlers' association he can justly claim to be a veteran in the ranks of the Travelers' Protective association.

Mr. Byrns joined when the order was yet young, taking out his card in the Quincy post in 1891, nearly a quarter of a century ago. That he became a member in the early days of the association is evidenced by the fact that the number of his policy is 2763. In the intervening years there has been a vast enrollment and Mr. Byrns naturally takes some pride in his position as an old timer among the Travelers. After keeping his membership in Quincy for a few years he transferred to Chicago and in 1900 when he became a Jacksonville merchant his membership was changed to Post O.

That was fourteen years ago and while there have been growing demands on Mr. Byrns' time as the business of his well known men's furnishing goods store has increased he has never lost interest in Post O and is today not only one of the oldest members in point of service, but also one of the most enthusiastic.

While he was on the road Mr. Byrns gained a wide acquaintance among traveling men which has been unbroken through the years and doubtless many of his long time friends will find their way to his store at the southwest corner of the square today.

AN AGED RESIDENT.

Uriah Rimey, one of the oldest settlers of the county, was up to the city yesterday from his home in Murrayville. Though well past four score "Uncle Rike" is wonderfully well preserved and speaks with enthusiasm on the changes and improvements he has seen. He says 74 years ago his father's wagon passed through the village of Springfield, then containing 700 inhabitants, and the oaks were so breezy and inquisitive they told his father not to leave his wagon in the road but take down the fence and go inside so as to be free from those datory animals. He has seen Jacksonville grow from a little village to its present proportions and has had a good share in the advancing of the welfare of the community in which he lives.

A Great Stable This

Our stable of stallions is one in which we can justly take a large amount of pride. In offering them to the farmers and stockmen of this and adjoining counties we know that they cannot fail to be pleased with the individual quality of the animals. The speed and draft stallions alike have great records and each one represents the best which breeding can bring.

CONCERT BY ILLINOIS

COLLEGE GLEE CLUB

Large Audience Heard Excellent Program in Jones Memorial Building Last Night.

There was large and appreciative audience present last night in the Jones Memorial building to hear the annual concert by the Illinois College Glee club. The club has been doing some consistent practicing, under the leadership of Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson and the program last night was a compliment to the musical ability of the students of the institution and to their instructor. The voices blended well and the solo work was of a high order. Dean Cochran, who was to appear as violin soloist was not able to be present on account of illness and his place was taken by Miss Nathalia Jensen, who also took his place in the string quartet.

A surprise was in store for the audience at the close of the first part of the program when the comedy quartet in costume, gave two selections. The members were Frank Morrison, Calvin Atchison, Edward Korsemeier and Reuben Cohn. The quartet was most favorably received. The audience received the club with sincere applause and called for encores which were heartily given.

The program follows:

PARK BOARD NOTES.

The park board is at work doing its best for the welfare of the system with the means at hand.

Duncan park has all been raked over, the small pavilion repaired, the swing put in shape, the driveway rolled and smoothed and a number of trees have been planted there.

In central park several trees have been planted, the park seats placed, grass seed sown and the park put in shape.

Lights have been added to the first ward playground and more are expected and it is the intention to have that place in shape for the children by the close of school.

At Nichols park about 200 trees have been planted and in all the parks 219 at a cost of $18.75 in the ground. The fence about the proposed deer park is being erected, the shed completed and it is expected that the deer will be on hand next week.

The approaches to the bridge have been graded with cinders, the benches all gotten out, repaired and put in first class shape, the refreshment pavilion has been cleaned, painted and remodeled and put in shape generally, and work has been begun with the lawn mower and all is in good shape.

John Shaw has been employed as park policeman for the season or during good behavior.

Much trouble has been experienced by fast driving and the park board has made a stringent rule that all driving and auto traveling must be at a slow pace in the park and especially across the bridge where pedestrians and vehicles cross on the same track. People must go slowly there or suffer the consequences.

Mrs. C. F. Gaddis of Franklin street will go to Tower Hill, Shelby county, for a visit at the home of her parents, today.

MORTUARY

Noonan.

Agnes Isabel, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Noonan, died at the residence, 812 West North street, this morning at 12:25 o'clock. The child was born Tuesday morning of this week.

Yeck.

Louis Yeck, a well known resident of Concord, died Wednesday evening at 8:15 after a long illness. He was born in Ohio, Dec. 28, 1830, and came to Illinois with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Philip Yeck, when 18 months old, the family settling near Arenzville. He married Miss Mary Smith in 1860 and they were the parents of the following children: John P., Mrs. Oro Valentine, Harry, Mrs. Mollie Baylis, Concord; Glenn Yeck, Granite City; Homer, Brighton; Charles, deceased. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. John J. Kelly, of Jacksonville; Mrs. G. E. Smith, Mayfield, Ill.

For a number of years Mr. Yeck was in the mercantile business and after this following the occupation of a farmer for 29 years, in which he was quite successful. He was a man highly respected in the community.

Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Concord M. E. church, in charge of Rev. H. J. Floreth. Interment will be in the Concord cemetery.

LIVE STOCK MARKET REVIEW.

The Blakely-Sanders-Mann Company says:

"We have had a pretty fair run of cattle since Monday, a good per cent of receipts consisting of steers and butcher stuff. There were some good beef steers here Tuesday that weighed around 1200 pounds on which we were bid 8.90, the shipper would not accept the price, so we had to ship them to Chicago.

There had been quite a sprinkling of steers sold here this week at 8.65 to 8.85, one bunch of pretty good steers brought 9.15. The market was about 10c lower than Monday until today when a little reaction was shown. The trade for the week is about steady with the close of last week. There has been a good many real good butcher cattle here this week and the good yearling steers and butcher heifers are 25c higher than last week; medium to pretty good kind under 8c show 10 to 15c higher. Cow market about 10c lower than Monday, several here this week selling 7.75 to 8c. Stockers and feeder supply moderate market fairly active and fully steady. Bologna bulls 10 to 15c higher; fat bulls generally steady. It takes a good kind to bring 7c or better.

Hogs.

"Receipts of hogs today 7,000; the market 5 to 10c lower; an outside top of 8.55. Most of the good hogs 8.40 to 8.50; lights sold largely at 8.25 to 8.40; good pigs 7.75 to 8c; rough packers sold mostly at 8c. Do not believe receipts are going to be very heavy for the next few days, but do not look for very much improvement in the market."

NEEDLE HAD BEEN IN

KNEE FOR 17 YEARS.

Miss Bernice Cooper, of near Concord, underwent an operation at Our Savior's hospital Wednesday afternoon for a needle that had been in her knee for 17 years. The doctors, Messrs. Hairgrove, Norris, Fountain, Webster and Pratt of California, found that the needle had gone to the bone and it was deemed advisable to leave it there rather than injure the bone. Miss Cooper is a niece of Mrs. A. C. Rexroat of South Diamond street.

SOCIETY MEETS TODAY.

The Missionary society of the Central Christian church will hold their meeting today at the church. Topic for the afternoon, "Our New Work in China." Mrs. Mildred Powell will have charge of the program. Supper will be served to the members of the society and their friends.

BASEBALL GAME.

Two games of baseball will be played on the Illinois college campus this morning. The Jefferson and Morton schools will play at 9 o'clock and the Franklin and Washington schools at 10:30.

J. P. Coons of Nashville, Tenn., and S. W. Coons of Louisville, Ky., who were called to Keokuk, Ia., to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Rev. James Connoran, have been visiting with relatives in the city. S. W. Coons has gone to Cincinnati, Ohio for a business visit and J. P. Coons expects to leave today for his home.

The National Drink Welch's Grape Juice The National Drink

The days of Spring remind one that there is nothing more invigorating, nothing more health giving than

Welch's Grape Juice

It is nothing but the real, pure juice of the finest Concord grapes grown. No sugar or sweetening is added. A few hours after the grapes leave the vines, they are washed, rinsed, stemmed, pressed and the juice is placed in hermetically sealed glass. It is a really health giving drink.

INTERESTING POINTS IN BLOOMINGTON SALOON CASE

Arguments Concluded But Decision Will Not Be Rendered For Several Weeks.

The Bloomington Pantagraph gives the following facts about the local option contest, which is in progress in that city. The arguments in the case have been finished by the attorneys but the decision will not be given for several weeks.

"All arguments in the matter of the contested election were finished yesterday afternoon and the question is now in the hands of Judge Homer W. Hall, of the county court.

"The court stated to the attorneys following the close of the arguments yesterday that he would take what seemed to him a proper length of time before giving an opinion. The case has so many viewpoints and there are so many different aspects to be considered that it is quite possible that there will be no opinion given before the end of next week and possibly later.

"In discussion with an attorney following the hearing five points were agreed upon, the finding of any one of which will affect the ultimate outcome of the case. Should the court find illegal any one of the five points agreed upon the election as held would be invalidated and the progress of the trial of the case would have arrived at the point of taking evidence. The questions that have been discussed have been entirely legal ones and the taking of testimony on the points which mark the issue of the case will not be commenced until there is a finding of the court on them. The five points upon which a finding is awaited are:

"The question of legality of the joint ballot which was voted.

"The question of the failure to place the fac simile of the signature of the city clerk on the ballots in both of his capacities.

"The question of the change of polling place in precinct 11.

"The question of the legality of the votes of those living in the territory lying north of Empire street and which was once a part of Normal township.

"The form of the proposition on anti-saloon territory as it was placed on the ballots.

"These are the five points upon which evidence will be taken should the finding of the court not sustain the demurrer which has been filed against the charges contained in the original petition.

"On these points the attorneys have asked for as early a finding as possible that they may fix a date for the beginning of any hearing that may be held.

"On Woman's Suffrage Act. The chief and largest question, that of the constitutionality of the woman's suffrage act, will be weighed deliberately by the court. The attorneys stated to the court last night that they were quite willing that that part of the controversy should hold over until the next meeting of the supreme court early in June. At any rate the other points will receive the attention of the court first, and it is quite possible that the time for the holding of the supreme court on the question may arrive before the opinion here has been given.

"Briefs Are Extensive. There is a vast amount of matter to be examined. The briefs which have been presented by counsel are voluminous and the authorities which have been cited are legion. It is hardly possible that with the other work that is part of the duty and routine of the county court that Judge Hall will reach any opinion of the question of constitutionality before June. The other questions are those that are pressing, although a decision of the question of constitutionality, if made against the woman's suffrage act would end the entire matter. That decision being uncertain and upon suggestions from attorneys interested in the case, the court will render his opinion on the five points given above before he touches the constitutional question, that evidence may be taken in the regular way.

"The matter will be presented to the city council by City Attorney Peasley Friday night in the form which is included in this article. This will serve as a line to the city council upon which they will act regarding the saloon licenses which are now expiring.

"Saloons Will Close. The saloons will close their doors on the night of May 6 and will remain closed until a decision of the court on these questions is made and until evidence is taken in the regular course of a trial of the case, or until such time as the law of woman's suffrage is declared unconstitutional by the supreme court or by the county court here should the last act precede that of the supreme court. Judge Hall stated yesterday that he was anxious to consider the question of the constitutionality of the law, but that he wanted ample time to consider it from all attitudes and that he would take it up regardless of the act of the supreme court should the time arrive for him to do so before that body handed down an opinion. His selection of the other issues of the case for first decision followed the suggestion of attorneys. Should there be evidence taken it would be a couple of weeks or more in that work and the placing of that after the finding on the question of constitutionality would but delay the final understanding of the issues to a still later date.

"FRANKLIN VISITORS. Visitors in the city yesterday from Franklin were Walter Morgan, W. J. Wyatt, Miss Edna Slack, Iven Woods, James Bond, Mrs. William Challens, Gean Belk, August Walters, Elmer Beerup, Charles Beerup, J. W. T. Stewart.

G. T. S. C. CLUB HOLDS INITIAL BANQUET

Pleasant Gathering of Organization of Markham Young Ladies at Home of Mrs. S. Phillip Cleary.

The first banquet of the G. T. S. C., organization of young ladies of the Markham neighborhood was held last night at the home of Mrs. S. Phillip Cleary at "The Maples" west of the city. Covers were laid for sixteen and the dining room was decorated in pink and white, white roses being the club flower, ferns, smilax and other spring flowers. The place cards were hand painted, the work of Miss Margaret Wolke. The menu served was a most excellent one and greatly enjoyed. The club was organized a year ago yesterday with nine members and now it has eleven. Aside from sewing they give literary programs and the club has become an important one among the young ladies. During the past year, they have had Miss Lydia Sargent Rearick of the Boston conservatory play for them, also Miss Hazel Claus of Jacksonville.

The following was the program with Miss Mae Paschall, president of the club at toastmistress:

Pianola selection, "5th Nocturne" Grand Polka D. Concerto—S. Phillip Cleary.

"History of G. T. S. C."—Miss Mae Paschall.

"The benefit a bride has derived from the club"—Mrs. Helen Sargent Cleary.

Vocal duet—"When the die is on the rose"—Misses Margaret Wolke and Ethel Thompson.

"Woman"—W. D. Wolfe.

Solo "Garden of Roses"—Mae W. Sargent.

An outsiders Impression of G. T. S. C.—Rev. Ray Bracewell.

Duet, violin and piano "Schubert's serenade"—Misses Ethel Thompson and Mae Paschall.

SENIOR VIOLIN RECITAL. Miss Helen Ruth Harrison Gives Splendid Recital at Woman's College.

Miss Helen Ruth Harrison, a pupil of Max V. L. Swarthout of the Woman's college, gave a delightful violin recital in music hall Thursday afternoon. Miss Harrison is a talented musician and her work revealed her interpreting powers and fine technique. Her ability in tone production was remarkable and she plays with an ease and soul, characteristics which are so often wanting in violinists. In all her selections where climaxes were noted she executed them with remarkable skill and her splendid temperament was manifested to a large degree throughout her entire program. In the first number Miss Deane Obermeyer presided at the piano and played the difficult part in an artistic manner. The rest of the accompaniments were played by Mr. Max V. L. Swarthout, whose work is always commendable.

The program follows: Sonata, Op. 8 (Violin and Piano).

Allegretto quasi Andantino. Allegro molto vivace.

Loure and Gvotte. Bach (From the Sixth Sonata).

Romance in E minor. Sinding. Concerto in D Major. Mozart (First movement. Cadenza by Ferdinand David).

Romances sans Paroles and Rondo. Elegant. Wieniawski. Hejre Karl. Hubay (Scene from the Czarda.)

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Ladies Aid of Centenary had a very enjoyable afternoon Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. B. Rexroat. The benefit quilt was presented Mrs. Kenney, the president. Prizes were won by Mrs. George Thompson and Miss Susan Wackerle and during the hours dainty refreshments were served.

PRaises McDOUGALL'S WORK. A recent issue of the Herin journal contains an account of the celebration of the ninety-fifth anniversary of Odd Fellowship, observed by the Herin lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, Saturday, April 25.

Two thousand were in attendance and the parade, in which there were three bands, was a half mile in length. Past Grand Master E. R. Saylor of Springfield was present and the ritualistic work was in charge of F. E. McDougall of this city. In speaking of Mr. McDougall the journal said: "The ritualistic work was in charge of F. E. McDougall of Jacksonville, whose interpretation of the work was very impressive and beautiful and all who witnessed his dramatization were glad that he had come."

THE REV. F. L. BUCK WILL PREACH AT NORTHMINSTER. The Rev. F. L. Buck of the Methodist church at Normal, Ill., will take the place Sunday morning of the Rev. W. E. Spoonst, who will preach at Hebron, near Sinclair. In the afternoon, Rev. Mr. Spoonst will speak at Shiloh and in the evening will return to the city when he will give a lecture on "How Christ was Baptized."

MAHONEY PLANNED TO KILL CARNEGIE. New York, April 30.—That Andrew Carnegie had been marked for death by M. P. Mahoney, who attempted to kill Mayor Mitchell on April 17, but instead shot and wounded Corporation Counsel Polk, was asserted by Dr. M. S. Gregory today at the inquiry into Mahoney's sanity. The witness said that the prisoner had told him of the plan to kill Carnegie and two other men, whose names he refused to reveal. The doctor declared that Mahoney was suffering from pre-senile illusory dementia.

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.—"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headaches.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she did and feels fine now."—Mrs. M. R. KARSCHNICK, 1438 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Other Case.
Dayton, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. S. P. FILES ANSWER IN
THE GOVERNMENT SUIT

DECLARES S. P. AND C. P. WERE OPERATED AS ONE ROAD.

The Answer in Suit to Divorce Two Roads Asserts That as Far Back as 1898 the U. S. Government Recognized the Continuation of the Two Roads as Wholesome.

Salt Lake City, Utah, April 30th.—The Southern Pacific company filed today in the United States district court its answer in the government suit to divorce the Central Pacific from the Southern Pacific. The answer, after specifically denying all allegations that the German anti-trust law has been violated, points out not only that the two lines were originally built, operated and developed as one road, but that, as far back as 1898, the United States government, itself, practically recognized the combination as wholesome.

It asserts, that in the joint operation of these lines through trains have been run by the most direct or convenient route without reference to their ownership, and that any separation of the Central Pacific lines from those of the Southern Pacific cannot now be had without detriment to both properties, and without impairing and inconveniencing the public service and the communities through which the lines pass.

In a brief historical resume, the answer declares:

1st.—That the lines of the Southern Pacific railroad company were built as extensions and connections of the lines of the Central Pacific railroad company, and by the same stockholders.

2nd.—That, as the lines of the Southern Pacific railroad company were completed, they were directly leased to the Central Pacific to be operated within its lines.

3rd.—That, on April 1, 1885, the Southern Pacific railroad company, to simplify the organization, took over, under lease for 99 years, all the lines of both Central Pacific and Southern Pacific, and has since managed and developed them as one property, considering only efficiency and service to the public, without regard to corporate properties, such as terminals and branches.

4th.—That, relying on the terms under which the Central Pacific's debt to the government of $58,000,000 was settled in 1898, the Southern Pacific company undertook heavy financial obligations, not only guaranteeing payment of this debt, but also guaranteeing the $100,000,000 4 per cent mortgage bond issue of the Central Pacific. In this connection, it is contended that the government could not consistently and with justice have accepted this settlement, of which it did have full knowledge as party thereto, if the arrangement involved a relation between the roads contrary to public policy.

5th.—That, even as late as 1912, in the recent so-called Hartman merger suit, when the United States supreme court ordered the dissolution of the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific, the court, the highest tribunal in the land, found no reason to disturb the relations between the Central Pacific and the Southern Pacific. The supreme court ordered the dissolution of the Union from the Southern Pacific but as to the Central-Southern Pacific relations, said, "We find no reason to disturb the action of the court below." The court below had declined to disturb the Central-Southern Pacific relations, although the facts concerning it were at that time brought out.

Commenting on the fact that the lines were in one ownership and management and developed as one property, the early part of the answer points out, because of this fact little heed was given as to which corporation should hold the title to terminal properties and branch lines. Accordingly branch lines from all points on the Central Pacific were built and owned by the Southern Pacific railroad company, these branches having no connection with the main line of the Southern Pacific railroad company except through Central Pacific lines.

Any separation of the Central Pacific lines from the Southern Pacific lines, it is asserted, cannot now be had except with great detriment and injury.

The answer further sets forth the granting by the government of subsidy of the treasury and the interior and the attorney general constitute a commission with full power to settle this indebtedness by agreement between them and the railroad involved and with the written approval of the President of the United States.

The answer alleges:

"It was well understood by the congress at the time of the passage of this law that the said indebtedness of the Central Pacific railroad company to the United States government amounted to at least $58,000,000 and according, therefore, to the terms of said law, the Central Pacific railroad company was required to pay during each of the ten years allowed for the payment of said debt the sum of $5,800,000 per annum.

"This sum exceeded many times over any possible net earnings of the Central Pacific railroad company that could be applied to the payment of this debt, and it cannot be questioned that the congress intended and understood that this debt could and would be paid by the employment of the credit and resources of the Southern Pacific company at all that compliance with the prescribed terms of the settlement necessarily involved participation therein by the Southern Pacific company, and the only motive or consideration which could induce the said Southern Pacific company to participate in the payment of the Central Pacific railroad company's debt to the government was the existence of the aforesaid relations between it and that company and its desire to continue such relations and to make permanent its control of that part of its system.

"The defendants, therefore, allege that the congress at the time it enacted the said law of July 7, 1898, contemplated and expected such participation by the Southern Pacific company in the settlement provided for and had full power to arrange for such security for the payment of said indebtedness as to said commission might seem expedient."

The commission created by congress under the authority of this act made an agreement with the Central Pacific railroad company for payment of this debt in twenty semi-annual installments.

Copies of the agreement and memoranda were given the widest publicity, so that not only the private parties interested, but the President of the United States and all government officials, including members of congress, knew that by the terms of the re-adjustment, the Southern Pacific company was to acquire the ownership of the entire capital stock of the Central Pacific railroad company, and knew also of the lease and operation of the Central Pacific lines as a part of the Southern Pacific system, the things now complained of as being in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

It is recited that they knew also at the time that the Central Pacific could not, without the aid of the Southern Pacific, comply with the terms of the agreement, as they based on the participation of the latter their assurance that the agreement would be carried out financially.

In consequence, it is recited, the Southern Pacific company incurred the obligation of guaranteeing the $100,000,000 of the first refunding 4 per cent mortgage bonds of the Central Pacific railway company, which are now outstanding, and of acquiring the $12,000,000 preferred stock and the $67,275,500 common stock of the Central Pacific railway company. For this stock the Southern Pacific railway company gave either cash or its equivalent in its own capital stock. Furthermore, the United States government received $58,812,715.48 in payment of the Central Pacific debt, which it would not otherwise have been paid.

In like manner, relying on the expectation and belief created and induced by the government as above, the Southern Pacific company has since incurred heavy financial obligations, details of these being given in the answer.

Tells Mothers What to do For Delicate Children.

"My little boy has been rather delicate for a long time. He was always very pale and his appetite was poor. Several people recommended 'Vinol.' I gave it to him and he took it willingly, as the taste is delicious. In a short time I noticed a great improvement in his appetite. He soon had more color in his cheeks. He is now well like other children and romps about every afternoon after school. I am so happy with what Vinol did for my little boy, that I want every mother to know about it."—Mrs. C. R. This delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil is a wonderful body builder and strength creator for both young and old. We promise to give back your money in every such case where Vinol does not benefit. This shows our faith in Vinol.—Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

BLEAK DAYS

By WALT MASON.

The clouds are gray and grim today, the winds are sadly sighing; it seems like fall, and over all a sheet of gloom is lying. The dreary rain beats on the pane and sounds a note of sorrow; but what's the odds? The genial gods will bring us joy tomorrow. We have the numps, the doctor humps himself around to cure it; we're on the bling and off-ten think we simply can't endue it; to all who list we groan, I wist, and to a hard luck story; but why be covey? Week after next we'll all be hunkdory. The neighbor folks are tiresome blokes, they bo's us and arroy us; with such folks near is amply clear that no one can be joyous; things would improve if they would move—we really don't need them, but let's be gay they'll move away and worse ones will succeed them. The world seems sad, sometimes, my lad, and life is a disaster; but do not roar; for every sore tomorrow brings a plaster. The fool, he kicks against the pricks, all optimism scorning; the wise man goes his way—he knows joy cometh in the morning.

BIRTHDAY OF LITTLE

DUTCH PRINCESS.

The Hague, April 30.—From the German frontier to the North Sea, every city, town and hamlet of the Netherlands today displayed a profusion of flags and gave other evidences of rejoicing over the fifth birthday anniversary of the little Princess Juliana, who will one day be the ruler of the Netherlands, with 40,000,000 subjects at home and abroad.

The birth of the princess on April 30, 1909, was hailed with great joy by the people of the Netherlands, since it fulfilled a long deferred hope and assured the succession of the House of Orange to the Dutch throne. The infant princess was christened Juliana Louise Emma Marie Wilhelmina. The name of Juliana was given her in memory of Countess Juliana of Nassau, wife of Prince Frederick Henry, and mother of the two branches of the House of Orange Nassau. The name of Louise recalls Louise de Coligny, wife of William, the Silent. The names of Emma, Marie and Wilhelmina are those of her grandmother and her mother.

CLEVELAND TO CHANGE TIME.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 30.—Cleveland's decision to change from central standard to eastern standard time will be put into effect tomorrow, when it is expected that for a while at least it will be a case of "confusion worse confounded" for the people. The change is the result of a campaign that has been waged for a long time by the business interests of the city. Under the new arrangement the factories and shops will begin work an hour earlier in the morning and close an hour earlier in the afternoon, thus giving the employees the benefit of an additional hour of daylight after work. Much confusion is expected to follow the change, however, since the postoffice department, the most of the railroads, the express companies and numerous other concerns have decided not to conform to the new time change because it would necessitate a complete rearrangement of their schedules.

SOUTH ATLANTIC

ATHLETIC MEET.

Baltimore, April 30.—One of the greatest aggregations of college athletes ever drawn together in a single meet in Baltimore or vicinity will be seen in action on the field at Homewood, a suburb of this city, tomorrow and Saturday. The occasion will be the third annual track and field championships of the South Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic association. The meet will take place under the auspices of the athletic association of Johns Hopkins university. Among the institutions that will send their best performers to take part in the competitions are the University of North Carolina, Washington and Lee University, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Georgetown university, Roanoke college, Johns Hopkins university and the Agricultural and Mechanical college of North Carolina.

SPRING GOLF AT LAKEWOOD.

Lakewood, N. J., April 30.—The annual spring tournament of the Country club of Lakewood, which marks the formal beginning of the golf season in the metropolitan district, was opened today and will be continued through the remainder of the week. Some spirited contests are looked for at the tournament in view of the large number of high class of the contestants.

BUSY DAYS NOW ON FARMS IN MORGAN COUNTY

Corn Planting in Progress in Many Localities.—Recent Rains Helped Pastures and Crop Prospects.

Now is the time when the resident of Morgan county has good reason for pride in the beautiful locality in which he lives. A ride of a few miles into the country suggests to the careful observer many items of interest.

Wheat never looked better at this season of the year. All conditions so far have been favorable and the crop promises to be a bumper if only it can escape trouble hereafter. How much the chinch bug will do to it is yet uncertain but it can stand a great deal and still produce a fine yield.

Pastures are a trifle backward owing to the long continued dry weather and cold days but they are green and fine and with seasonable weather will soon be all right if not overstocked.

Clover looks well in almost all cases. Many fields show heavy crops and there is every reason to look for a fine yield of hay from both clover and timothy if we have rain and warm weather. Oats are showing well though now they need plenty of rain and warm weather. The recent rain was a great boon and the cool weather that followed it was also a blessing as it kept the moisture in the ground where it was most needed. There is a pretty good acreage and the crop in this vicinity promises well thus far.

A good many farmers are planting corn and the click of the planter is becoming quite common while a few forehanded ones are through and will soon begin to fight the weeds and pulverize the soil between the rows.

Even yet the planter and check-rower are objects of interest to one who has seen old fashioned cultivation. In olden times when a field was first "cleared" the "jumping shovel" was brought into requisition. It was a single shovel, triangular piece of steel about ten inches each way, fastened to the end of the implement. From the beam to the point of this shovel went something like a sod cutter making with it a triangle and the two points joining each other there was nothing to catch and the plowman could go along and if his plow struck a root which was the case every step or two, the plow jumped over it. Thus the land was poorly prepared for its first crop, the seed being dropped by hand and covered with a hoe. When the roots began to rot and disappear an ordinary plow was used, the ground harrowed and laid off a shovel plow making a line at a time one way and then crossing the field in the opposite direction, making a great deal of work. Follow the dim furrow and cross the plain was the rule so as to get the rows straight.

Then the shrewd man who wanted to save time conceived the plan of marking three rows at a time with a concern something like a sled with three runners knife shaped on the edge and crossing this with a shovel plow to make a place for the seed. The patent hand planter was quite an improvement and was used to some extent but when the planter was invented, a man to drive and another to work the lever to drop the seed it was a machine which seemingly could hardly be improved on till the check rower came into use and there improvement ended and we have the various fine cornplanters made by the reliable factories known to the farming community everywhere. The writer drew up at the home of William Baxter. Mr. Baxter is carrying on his own farm and in addition has 200 acres belonging to the Misses Green so that his hands are pretty well filled. He is cultivating 130 acres of corn and from such good ground he ought to have a fine crop if we are blessed with any kind of a season. A neighbor of Mr. Baxter is William Walbaum, one of the welcome arrivals in this country from the dear old Vaterland. His farm is carried on in the best manner and all about the place shows evidences of industry and good management. Mr. Walbaum has a good farm and he has come honestly by it and it is a pleasure to have such a man as a friend.

The writer also had the pleasure of a visit with C. M. Coons, who lives on the state road on the old Shuff place. Mr. Coons is certainly prepared to enjoy life. A farm situated on a main thoroughfare, good buildings and all that heart could wish to make one contented. He was occupied fencing in the right of way, or rather what had once been the right of way of the unfortunate interurban road between this city and Springfield. It makes one feel bad to contemplate the money spent on that enterprise and seemingly wasted. It may yet be galvanized into life but it is doubtful. Mr. Coons has an orchard which was brilliant with blossoms, though he says the trees are not as full of bloom this year as they have been at times. His apples are of good variety and the orchard is good looking. Like his neighbor, Mrs. Baxter, he likes the White Brahman chickens and has many of them.

Another short visit was made with W. H. Harrison who lives almost under the eaves of Salem M. E. church. Mr. Harrison is one of the men who believes in living and letting live and not keeping all he has to himself. His place is very conveniently located, a short distance from town, so near he can easily go in and get back for dinner. He has about him the comforts and conveniences of life.

NEW YORK STATE LEAGUE OPENS.
Scranton, Pa., April 30.—In four cities of the New York league circuit the umpire's cry of "Play ball" was heard for the first time today, marking the opening of the 1914 championship season. The Albany team lined up for the initial contest at Wilkes Barre. Syracuse appeared at Elmira and Troy at Scranton, while the champion "Bingoes" entertained the Utica team at Binghamton.

The circuit of the league remains the same as last season, but there have been many changes among the managers and players. John Kelly has taken the place of Dick Smith as manager of the Scranton team and Ed Phelps has succeeded Jim Tamssett at Albany. Other new managers are Fred Payne at Syracuse, Wild Conroy at Elmira and Pete Noonan at Wilkes Barre. Of the new managers, Conroy, Phelps and Payne are the best known, all being former big league players.

The New York State league will play a season of 140 games, closing September 13. All the teams on the circuit have higher priced men this year than ever before and the club owners and managers all along the line predict that the race for the pennant will be one of the most interesting in the history of the organization.

EIGHTH GRADE WINS FROM THIRD WARD SCRUBS

Thursday afternoon the eighth grade ball team defeated the third ward "scrubs" by a score of 15 to 7. The game was won with ease by the eighth graders. The batteries were as follows:

Eighth grade: Bento and Arters; Scrubs: Baldwin and Carleson.

The game was played on a vacant lot on Hardin avenue.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM MISS DIVINE.

The following letter from Miss Divine appeared in the Atlantic City (N. Y.) Review of April 20. Miss Divine is a daughter of the late William S. Divine and his wife, Mrs. Annie Elliott Divine. The young lady is a niece of Mr. Frank Elliott of this city:

Miss Mary Divine, niece of Miss Margaret Divine of this city, who is very well known here, where she attended school for three years, has had the pleasure of traveling quite extensively and the following is an extract from one of her letters, which tells of some of her experiences. She is now visiting relatives in Birmingham, Ala.

Dear Folks:—We have had a wonderful trip! Monday, March 30, at 9 a. m. we left Lewiston, Idaho, crossed the Clearwater river, into Washington. We passed through one fruit orchard after another, all a mass of pink and white blossoms. We passed by Walla Walla on the stat; line and reached Pendleton, Oregon, at 4 o'clock. There we took the train for Salt Lake City, reaching there Tuesday afternoon at six, as we missed our train, we stayed over night at a beautiful hotel, the Utah.

Wednesday morning we went through Temple Rock, owned by the Mormons. We saw the outside of the beautiful temple which took forty years to build, and only Mormons can go in it. We went to the famous tabernacle and saw its wonderful organ. It is 250 feet long, 150 feet wide and 80 feet high, and seats 8,000 people. The wooden roof is self supporting and rests on pillars of red sand stone. Not a nail in the building! It is put together with wooden pins.

In the afternoon we took an auto ride and saw the beautiful Salt Lake stretching out before us. We left at 4 o'clock on the Denver & Rio Grande. The train passed through such wonderful and beautiful scenery. The Royal gorge was grand. We changed at Pueblo via Houston, Texas, to New Orleans. There we spent an interesting day, saw the building where the Louisiana purchase took place and the old French and Spanish quarters. Monday (April 6th) morning we arrived here, Birmingham, Ala.

JACKSONVILLE IS READY FOR CONFEDERATE VETERANS

National Encampment Will Be Held the Coming Week—Large Attendance Expected.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 30.—All arrangements have been completed for the 24th annual national encampment of the United Confederate Veterans, which will be held in this city next week.

For nearly a year a committee of fifty of the foremost citizens of Jacksonville has been at work on the preparations for the reception and entertainment of the 25,000 or more visitors who are expected to be here from every part of the south. The detailed program prepared by the committee is of the most perfect and elaborate character and if the coming reunion is not one of the most successful ever held by the veterans who wore the gray it will not be the fault of the people of Jacksonville.

Already public buildings and private residences are taking on holiday attire in honor of the coming of the grizzled heroes. The electrical decorations will be the most elaborate ever seen in the south. Upon arriving at the union depot the first thing to attract the attention of the visitors will be an enormous electric sign, flashing the words, "Jacksonville Bids You Welcome." At all the principal street intersections in the downtown district beautiful canopies of electric lights are being constructed. The leading thoroughfares are lined with Venetian masts from which old glory and one stars and bars will float side by side. Countless yards of bunting and thousands of flags and banners will be used in the decorations of the building fronts along the line of the reunion parade.

Gen. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, will preside at the business sessions of that body. Governor Park Trammell and other prominent speakers will be on the program. Among the notable guests who will be assigned places of honor on the platform will be Gen. E. M. Law of Bartow, Fla., who is the only surviving general on the confederate side who commanded a division at Chickamauga. General Law is now nearing his 89th year.

The annual parade will be the closing feature of the reunion. Many of the old soldiers who composed the armies of Virginia and Tennessee, who marched to the strains of "Dixie" and followed the old flag under Lee and Jackson and Hood and Johnson, are now too feeble to march in the ranks with their comrades. Realizing this, the local committee has arranged to furnish carriages and automobiles for those who wish to participate in the parade, despite their inability to stand the strain of marching. Others will occupy reserved seats in the reviewing stands, where they can witness the parade and cheer their comrades as they pass.

Hundreds of the veterans will be accommodated during the reunion in a great army camp at Springfield park. A second camp will be located in Dignan park. Both grounds are conveniently situated within easy access of the auditoriums and other places which will be the rendezvous of the veterans during the gathering.

In addition to the business sessions of the United Confederate Veterans and the several affiliated organizations there will be a distinct social side to the reunion. Three grand balls will be the leading features of the program of social entertainment. The principal ball will be that of the veterans, maids and sponsors, which will be given in a mammoth tent. The ball will be opened with the celebrated Southern Cross drill, participated in by 32 young men and women. The drill was originated in 1864 by a number of young confederate soldiers who were confined in the federal prison on Johnson's Island, in Lake Erie. As in previous years the sponsors and maids will add youth and brightness to the gathering of the veterans. These sponsors will represent not only the various divisions, but practically every division, brigade, regiment and camp of the United Confederate Veterans. In honor of these visitors there will be social festivities of many kinds. The honor of being selected as sponsor-in-chief has fallen to Miss Corrine Hampton of Columbia, S. C. Miss Hampton is a granddaughter of Gen. Wade Hampton, one of the famous cavalry leaders of the confederacy.

Though the business sessions and the social features will occupy much of the time of the visitors, the reunion spirit will be kept paramount and no pleasure the committee can provide will exceed the enjoyment the veterans will get from meeting again over the camp fire reveries. Opportunities for the veterans to mingle with each other will be afforded at the headquarters of the various departments.

BIG DISPLAY OF FOREST PRODUCTS.

Chicago, April 30.—The Forest Products exposition, the first large exhibition of the lumber and kindred industries ever held in America, was opened in the Coliseum today and will be continued until May 10. The principal purpose of the exhibition is to impress upon the minds of the American people the importance of forest conservation and scientific woodland development. To this end the federal government has sent an elaborate exhibit illustrating every feature of modern forest conservation and development. During the period of the exposition the National Lumber Manufacturers' association and other organizations connected with the lumber industry will hold conventions in Chicago.

Dated this 11th day of April, A. D. 1914.

J. McCan Davis, Clerk of Supreme Court.

CHANCERY NOTICE.

State of Illinois, ss

Morgan County,

Circuit Court of Morgan county,

May term, A. D. 1914.

Bertha Collard, complainant, vs. Jesse Collard, in chancery.

To Jesse Collard:

Affidavit of non-residence of you the said Jesse Collard defendant above named, having been filed in the office of the clerk of said court of Morgan county, notice is hereby given to you, the said Jesse Collard, that the complainant above named has heretofore filed her bill of complaint in said court, on the chancery side thereof, and that a summons thereupon issued out of said court, against you, the said defendant, returnable at the court house in the City of Jacksonville, in said county, on the second Monday of May next (1914), as is required by law; and that the said cause is still pending.

Now, unless you, the said Jesse Collard, shall be and appear before said Circuit Court of Morgan county on the first day of the term thereof to be holden at Jacksonville in said county on the second Monday of May 1914, and plead, answer or demur to said complainant's bill of complaint, the same, and the matters and things therein charged and stated, will be taken as confessed, and a decree entered against you according to the prayer of said bill.

Dated this 9th day of April, A. D. 1914.

Eugene D. Pyatt, Clerk.

Worthington, Reeve & Green, Complainant's solicitors.

day in May and Circuit Clerk Pyatt and his court deputy Gilbert Masters will have some very busy days. The following are the cases which have been placed on the general docket since December first:

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters

There's no sense in mixing up a mess of mustard, flour and water and getting everything all muddled up when you can so easily relieve that pain or soreness with a little clean, white MUSTEROLE.

MUSTEROLE is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of a pleasant white ointment. It takes the place of the out-of-date mustard plaster, and will not blister.

MUSTEROLE gives instant relief from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frostbitten Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the MUSTEROLE Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

Miss C. Bleedinghizer, Nurse, Washington, Pa., says, "Have used Musterole on patients and consider it fine."

Feet Aren't Aching or Tired Now--"TIZ"

It's Grand for Sore, Swollen, Sweaty, Calloused Feet and Corns.

Good-bye sore feet, burning feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelling feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, callouses, bunions and raw spots. No more shoe tightness, no more limping with pain or drawing up your face in agony. "TIZ" is magical, acts right off.

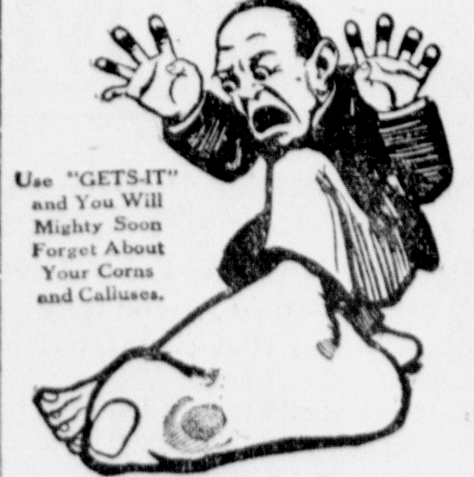

"TIZ" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. Use "TIZ" and wear smaller shoes. Use "TIZ" and forget your foot misery. Ah! how comfortable your feet feel.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" now at any drugstore or department store. Don't suffer. Have good feet, glad feet, feet that never swell, never hurt, never get tired. A year's foot comfort guaranteed or money refunded.

Swell Corns? Try Wonderful "GETS-IT"

Greatest Corn-Cure World Has Ever Known. "Gets" Corns Sure as Fate.

Thousands say "GETS-IT" is simply magic. If you've tried nearly everything under the sun to get rid of those corns, so much the better for "GETS-IT." Corn Freedom is yours at last, not next week or next month, but right now. "GETS-IT" goes after corns as a crow does corn. There are no more thick plasters and greasy salves that don't remove, no more files, razors and jabbers that make corns grow. Put a few drops of "GETS-IT" on and see every corn and callus shrivel and vanish. That's the new way, the painless, sure, safe, quick way. Only "GETS-IT" can do it. Apply it in 3 seconds.

Every druggist in the land sells "GETS-IT." 25 cents a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

A SUCCESSFUL PASTOR.

The following from the Providence, R. I. Bulletin, will be read with interest by a host of friends of Dr. Julian Wadsworth:

"Members of the Trinity Union, Methodist Episcopal church last night celebrated the fifth consecutive return of their pastor, Rev. Julian S. Wadsworth, D. D., to the parish, by giving a reception in his honor in the church. Rev. J. Francis Cooper, D. D., former pastor of the church, recently appointed superintendent of the Providence district, was also a guest of honor.

The reception was held in the auditorium of the church, and the chapels were arranged like reception rooms, with rugs, cut flowers and palms. Dr. and Mrs. Wadsworth were escorted to the platform by Harry Gregory, who also welcomed them in a brief speech. Dr. and Mrs. Cooper were escorted by Geo. W. Smith, who made a short welcoming speech on behalf of the parish. Eugene Lawton, who acted as master of ceremonies, also made a short address.

"After the speaking the guests moved into the church parlors and a social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served. In spite of the disagreeable weather more than 400 persons were present.

$8.50 TOP WEDNESDAY.
Chicago, April 29.—The receipts of hogs today were about 27,000 and the market was 10 to 15c lower than yesterday's average. Eight fifty was the top, secured by us for selected light weight shipping and the bulk of the selected light weight shipping sold from $8.40 to $8.45; bulk of the mixed hogs sold from $8.30 to $8.45; rough and throwout packers from $8.00 to $8.15. Pigs from $7.50 to $8.25. The market seems to be top heavy and again we advise, keep close to the shore and well shipped out. The packers are making a very hard fight for lower prices at present, and we can see nothing in sight to prevent them—Clay, Robinson &
Co.

The Illinois Stock Exchange is forced out of business at Jacksonville. For six years the Illinois Stock Exchange has operated one of the cleanest as well as one of the most up-to-date popular priced clothing and ready-to-wear stores in Jacksonville. Like a thunderbolt out of the clear sky they were forced to quit business. With spring just here and a mammoth stock on hand consisting of $20,000.00 worth of men's and young men's clothing, furnishings, Ladies' ready-to-wear apparel of every description the lease on the present location cannot be renewed and we are forced into the street. The stock in its entirety is to be placed on sale Saturday, May 2, at promptly 9 a. m. and to be disposed of to the public of Jacksonville and vicinity at 40 and 50 per cent on the dollar. This quit business sale comes suddenly and very unexpectedly and at a time when every shelf, rack, counter and table is filled with new spring and summer merchandise. We could sell out quicker but the honorable way is the only way that the Illinois Stock Exchange would consider and therefore Saturday, May 2, and promptly at 9 a. m. we will throw the entire stock to the mercy of the buying public of Jacksonville and vicinity at our location Thirteen West Side of Square. The greatest opportunity to save money on bright, snappy merchandise will await you. The climax of all value giving will open Saturday, May 2, promptly at 9 a. m.

The Ayers Safe Deposit Vault

A Safe Deposit Box is not a luxury, but a necessity to the owner of stocks, bonds, deeds, mortgages, insurance policies and other valuable papers.

Anxiety about jewelry and silverware not in use is dispelled when they are in a Safe Deposit Vault.

It may be of interest to know that in the construction of the vault there are more than 380,000 pounds of steel and the door itself weighs 4 tons.

To rent a Safe Deposit Box in this vault costs less than one cent a day.

Private rooms for the examination of papers are provided for the convenience of patrons.

Fuss up the Furniture

Make the furniture look like new. Make it shiny and glossy. Make those scratches disappear and those bruised places skidoo.

Ideal Furniture Polish

makes your furniture look like new. Gives it an enduring gloss and gives life and elasticity to the varnish. Good for the finest wood work.

FEDERAL TROOPS RESTORE
PEACE IN STRIKE ZONE

tently in southern Colorado for ten days laid aside their rifles and slumbered in their camps or beside the blackened ruins of mine buildings. Labor leaders and officials of coal companies, who had watched through nights with alarm, left their desks almost exhausted to take advantage of much earned sleep. Women and children who had trembled and prayed as rifles cracked and machine guns spat, once more felt safe to seek their beds.

It was because of the arrival of 300 regulars in Trinidad. Maj. W. W. Holbrook is in command of the regulars who form the second squadron, Fifth United States cavalry.

"We are not here to take sides between the strikers and their former employers," said the major, after conferring with leaders of both sides of the labor controversy. "We are here to restore order. I have been assured of co-operation from the warring factions and I am confident of our ultimate success."

Major Holbrook admitted that negotiations had been opened in connection with the disarmament of the strikers. He declined, however, to reveal the exact nature of the negotiations or if success had attended them.

Cannot Disarm Guards.

Asked if the mine guards would be disarmed, he said:

"The guards of course, cannot be disarmed just at present, with the property of the companies under their protection. The strikers, however, will be assured that the use of arms by the guards will be restricted. The guards must confine their activities strictly to protecting the property of their employers. They will not be permitted to molest the miners of their tent colonies."

The major said he would visit the site of the burned Ludlow tent colony in company with leaders of the miners to determine whether the strikers should be allowed to rebuild it. The strikers encamped near San Rafael hospital, on the edge of Trinidad will not be disturbed.

Maj. Holbrook expected martial law has not been proclaimed, that the civil authorities and the courts were exercising their functions.

The main camp of the regulars and the headquarters of their commander are on the fair grounds, north of the city. Troop G, 55 men, and Captain C. C. Smith, was sent to Walsenburg late today. Thirty men under Lieut. Wheeler, tonight went to Segundo to protect a district in which numerous reports of activity on the part of the strikers were received throughout last night.

Major Holbrook said he expected to send one troop to Ludlow to replace the state militiamen now on guard in that region. This, however, will not be done before tomorrow, perhaps not before Saturday.

THE ARENIVILLE ELECTION RESULT.

Since the recent local option election at Areniville, which resulted in that place going dry by seven votes, there has been a great deal of talk of a contest and the last day or two has developed charges of irregularities with regard to the recount of the vote.

It is alleged that a few nights ago a number of men constituted themselves as a canvassing board, opened the ballot boxes, recounted the ballots, threw out some of them and that their recount showed a majority of only one in favor of local option. The story which recites the above allegations does not give the source of the authority under which the men worked. It was stated yesterday that although talk of a contest of the result had been frequent, no notice of such action has been served.

CLEANING THE STREETS.

A force of men from the street department under direction of Street Commissioner Spaulding was busy yesterday afternoon and last night washing off the square and adjacent street pavements. Fire department hose was used and the work was done with fine cleanly effect.

VEHICLE TAX NOW DUE.

Notice is hereby given that vehicle license is now due and payable at this office. The ordinance requiring the payment of a vehicle tax will be strictly enforced.

A Wonderful
Spring

WE never saw anything just like the "Way" Sagless Spring. It has many of the qualities of the most expensive box spring but sells at the price of an ordinary article.

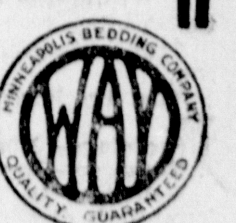

It never sags or bags. It never doubles you up like a jack-knife. It never bumps you on the bed slats. It never rolls the occupants toward the center of the bed. It never creaks, and groans, and rattles when you turn over. It is unbreakable as well as unsagable. It will last a lifetime with ordinary care. There are no open links to come unhooked or tear the bedding. It is a most economical proposition too.

To prove all this we will send one to your home for 30 nights free trial. The Manufacturer's guarantee, as well as ours, gives you absolute protection. If it sags within 25 years the Manufacturers agree to furnish a new fabric free.

Price only $8.00

Think of it—more than nine thousand nights of luxurious ease guaranteed. No risk—no worry—no expense—it's all comfort. The very first time you go shopping, drop in and we will tell you more about it.

PUBLIC HEALTH WAS THEME AT JOINT ANNUAL MEETING

Morgan County Anti-Tuberculosis League and Parent-Teachers' Organization Gather at High School—Addresses by Speakers of Note.

The Morgan County Anti-Tuberculosis League and the Union Parent-Teachers' association held a joint annual meeting at the high school Thursday evening at which officers were elected and reports presented by both organizations and addresses made by local, state and national speakers on the anti-tuberculosis work and the nurse as a factor in the promotion of public health. Those who spoke were Miss Katherine Olmsted, public health nurse, and Dr. T. O. Hardesty of this city; Miss Harriet Fulmer of Chicago, first secretary of the State Anti-Tuberculosis League and Miss Mary E. Lent of Baltimore, secretary of the National Association of Public Health Nurses. W. A. Gore, city principal of schools, opened the meeting for the Union Parent-Teachers' organization and reported the election of officers, turning over the chairmanship to L. O. Vaughn, head of the Anti-Tuberculosis League. After the reading of the annual report by Miss Louise Capps and a short address by Miss Olmsted, Dr. Josephine Milligan, chairman of the nominating committee of the Anti-Tuberculosis League, presented her report. The recommendations were unanimously adopted.

The formal program was preceded by a half an hour of music by the high school orchestra. In honor of Miss Lent and Miss Fulmer several members of the league gave a dinner at the Peacock Inn at 6 o'clock. Besides the guests of honor there were present: Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Vaughn, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Black, Prof. and Mrs. J. G. Ames, Dr. Josephine Milligan, Dr. Grace Dewey, Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson, Miss Louise Capps, Miss Annie Hinrichsen and Miss Katherine Olmsted.

The Officers Chosen.

The Union Parent-Teachers' elect the following officers to serve for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. A. B. Williamson.

Vice President—Mrs. A. C. Baldwin.

Secretary—Miss Clara Cobb.

Treasurer—Mrs. Andrew Russell.

Delegates to convention of the Twentieth district—Mrs. C. H. Patton and Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe.

Alternates—Miss Clara Cobb and Mrs. John Hall.

With the exception of eight new directors, the officials of the Anti-Tuberculosis League remain the same. The officers are: President, L. O. Vaughn; first vice-president, Dr. R. O. Post; second vice-president, Dr. H. C. Wolfman; third vice-president, Dr. T. O. Hardesty; treasurer, Mrs. J. Franklin Brown; secretary, Miss Louise Capps; physical examiner, Dr. C. E. Cole. The new directors of the league are Miss Lucy Ball, W. H. Crum of Liberty, Harry Onken of Chapin, Mrs. Carter of Waverly, Mrs. William Arnold of Arnold and the three county commissioners, W. F. Roegge, James C. McMillen and R. R. Coultas. The hold-over directors are Mrs. Carl E. Black, A. C. Metcalf, the Rev. H. D. French, Dr. F. H. Norris, Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe, Mrs. A. L. Adams, Miss Annie Hinrichsen, Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson, Dr. George H. Stacy, Dr. W. B. Young, Dr. Josephine Milligan, Dr. Grace Dewey, Dr. T. J. Pinner and Paul B. Fritchey.

Red Cross Peace Activity.

The anti-tuberculosis work is a branch of the peace activity of the Red Cross society, asserted Miss Harriet Fulmer of the state league. She spoke of the good work done by the Red Cross stamps and characterized the benevolent doings of the Red Cross organization as "among the most interesting in the world." She spoke of the deplorable living conditions which exist in Illinois and described specifically the anti-tuberculosis work in Richland and Livingston counties.

In Livingston county a campaign of information was inaugurated among the school children. At the end of three months the children understood very well the advantages of open air living, of sitting up straight at their desks at school and of sleeping with windows open. It developed that some of the children required as much as three windows in their sleeping rooms, a condition, said Miss Fulmer, which will stand forth as a living rebuke to all of us, so long as we as citizens of the great state of Illinois, permit such conditions to exist.

Miss Fulmer was the second speaker on the program. She was preceded by Miss Olmsted an followed by Miss Lent of Baltimore. Miss Olmsted's talk had to do with her work as public health nurse in the Jacksonville schools. She described her method of examining the child and referring its case to parents for treatment by a reputable doctor. She could do little without active co-operation on the part of parents, she said.

As Viewed by a Nurse.

The general public health as viewed from a nurse's standpoint was the subject of an interesting talk by Miss Lent. Miss Lent is on her way back to Baltimore, Md., after attending a gathering in St. Louis of the Public Health Nurses of America.

"We are concerned with all questions which affect the public health," said Miss Lent. We visit the sick, but we also visit the well. We study diseases and their cause and attempt methods for their prevention. In a quotation from Governor Eberhardt of Minnesota she said that conditions of public health have in modern times been very much bettered. There was a time when the average person did not live more than twenty-five years. He now lives to be forty-five.

The fight against tuberculosis, Miss Lent said has done much to awaken the public to questions of general health. It has awakened people to the necessity of bettering house conditions, the necessity for fresh air and the imperative need for proper food.

Miss Lent gave an excellent account of her work in Baltimore. Of the fifty public health nurses in Baltimore, five are devoted to school questions, nine to infant mortality work, one to pre-natal nursing, and eighteen to special anti-tuberculosis work.

General Manager Hurst Points to Helpful Signs That Shops Will Be Maintained Here for Years to Come.

General Manager Hurst of the C. & P. & St. L. has been in the city for a day or two on business relative to the switch extension of the C. & P. & St. L. across Independence avenue, and some other trackage changes. In answer to a query yesterday Mr. Hurst said that it is the expectation of the management to soon receive some engine work from the Burlington which will be done at the local shops. He said further that this work will give additional reason for the expectation that the shops will be continued and maintained here for some years to come at least. Mr. Hurst also said that the thousands of dollars the C. & P. & St. L. spent in repairing the shops during the past year might also be taken as an indication that there is no intention of any speedy change in shop operation plans.

FLAMES DESTROY BARN.

Structure at Residence of David Spencer at 1106 South East Street is Completely Burned.

Wednesday night about 10:30 o'clock the fire department was called to the residence of David Spencer, 1116 South East street, where the barn was burning. When the firemen left the department the building was all ablaze and although they made a good run it was impossible to do more than keep the flames from spreading.

The barn contained a wagon, a plow, a harrow, two sets of harness and some other farm implements, all of which with the building were completely destroyed. No livestock was kept in the building and the owners are at a loss to know the cause of the fire, unless it was caused by someone who had been sleeping in the barn. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

HANDSOMELY DECORATED.

There are many buildings on the square which are handsomely decorated in honor of the T. P. A. convention but possibly the block which has the largest amount of streamers and flags is the east half of the north side. Yesterday decorations were placed in position by the Knights of Pythias lodges as well as the stores of S. S. Knoles, T. M. Tomlinson and Smith Bros., giving an artistic arrangement of colors three stories wide and for three stories high. The decorations of Andre & Andre are also elaborate and the effect is carried out by those on the fronts of the Schmaltz, Mathis, Kamm & Shibe and the Phelps & Osborne stores.
